

Buying Nutanix® Software

Get the full power of Nutanix Enterprise Cloud OS software on your choice of hardware. Nutanix software is now available as a subscription, and runs on popular third-party server platforms.

- Flexible hardware support – Nutanix software is 100% tested, validated and supported on popular server platforms from companies such as Dell EMC™, Cisco® and HPE™.
- Technology choice with no lock-in – Select the virtualization technology that makes sense for your business (VMware vSphere®, Microsoft® Hyper-V™, Citrix XenServer® or Nutanix AHV) and manage your applications across multiple clouds.
- Easily transferable licenses – Move your Nutanix software licenses where you need them, at any time, across server brands and hypervisor platforms.
- A more cloud-like datacenter – Get the benefits of continuous software-driven innovation by transferring your valid Nutanix software license to new, upgraded hardware when you choose.
- Running all workloads – Nutanix Enterprise Cloud OS software can power all of your workloads, including databases, enterprise applications from Oracle®, SAP® and Microsoft®, server and desktop virtualization, big data analytics and more.
- Top-rated* support experience – Leverage world-class Nutanix support teams for any Nutanix software issue, and maintain your current server support contract for hardware issues. When in doubt, call Nutanix.

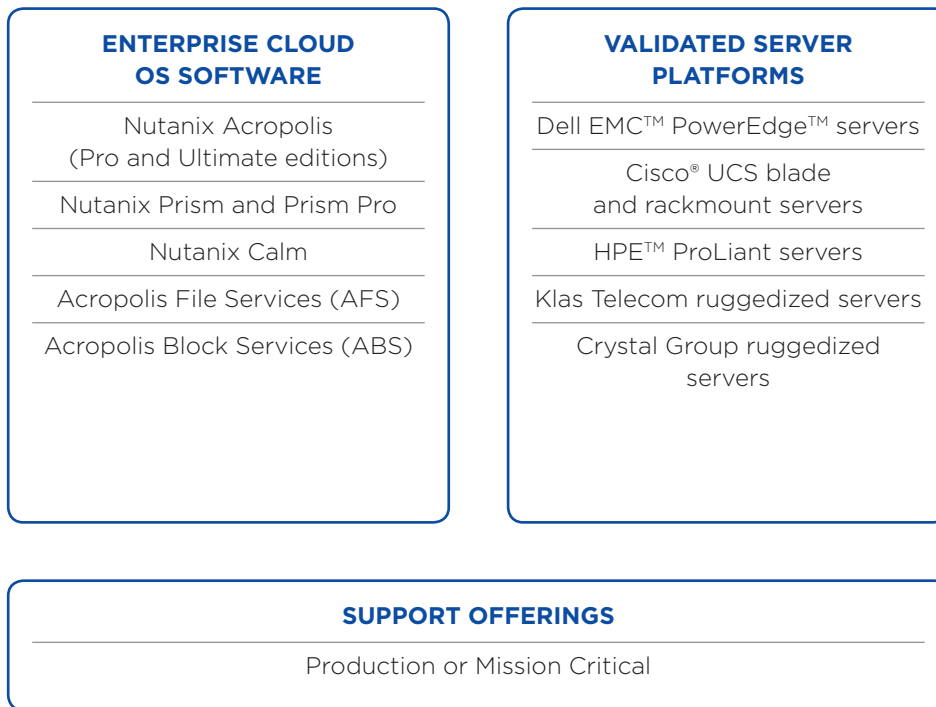

HOW TO GET STARTED

1. Pick the best Nutanix software for your project. Nutanix software licenses are available in flexible one through five-year terms, and include Production Support services at no additional charge. (Mission Critical Support is also available).
2. Select your preferred hardware vendor. Use Nutanix Sizer to generate precise, personalized recommendations for your choice of server and platform configurations. No more capacity or configuration guesswork.
3. Install Nutanix Enterprise Cloud OS software in minutes with the Nutanix Foundation tool.

Now you're ready to start deploying your applications, and powering your business.

That's Nutanix Freedom of Choice.
That's Nutanix Enterprise Cloud OS software.
